

Need help choosing the right school for your gifted child?

ConnectEd

We understand:

- as a parent of a gifted child you know how important finding the right school for your child really is.
- the unique characteristics of gifted children, and as teachers know how to communicate these needs effectively to other educators. We can advocate for you and your child, including assistance interpreting educational assessments with families and teachers, and how this should impact curriculum planning.
- that the right school for your child will embrace your child's individual social, emotional and academic needs and assist your child to reach his or her true potential.
- the needs of twice exceptional learners, underachieving students, perfectionism and many other needs of the gifted learner and strategies to help these students reach their potential.
- most schools claim that they cater for gifted children, we will assist you in determining which school will have the most appropriate models of curriculum, programs and provision for your child.

We provide professional and objective guidance from teachers who specialise and are passionate about Gifted Education, who understand and can match students and schools.
