Gifted Resources News

New Year, New Address, New...

For the first time since at least 2005 I did not publish a Gifted Resources Newsletter in January. Did you miss it?

The reason was that we have moved house again. This time it was a much bigger move; as we have moved to the seaside town of Rosebud.

Gifted Resources online work will continue but I will have to review the other services I offer. Gifted Resources website will be updated.

You can see some of the packing and unpacking fun on Sprite's Site at Wishing you all a very happy and successful 2012!

WHAT'S IN THE IN TRAY?

These items have been received recently and can be found in the In Tray which is located on the Home page of Gifted Resources Website www.giftedresources.org If you are not able to access the links here please go to the In Tray to access them.

If you would like information included in the newsletter and/or the In Tray please send to contributions@giftedresources.org

NSWAGTC Understanding and Advocating for your Gifted Child

The South West Sydney Support Group (SWSSG) of the NSW Association for Gifted and Talented Children (NSWAGTC) will be hosting a series of presentations throughout 2012 in relation to gifted children.

This talk by Denise Wood will provide information for parents in particular and will be of interest to teachers, principals and school counsellors as well.

After the talk parents will have a better understanding of what gifted and talented is and how it may be demonstrated, along with some very practical tips about the importance of developing a portfolio of your child's work and how to use it when advocating for them with their school.

The presenter: Denise Wood is Course Director, Charles Sturt University Bathurst, as well as the past President, NSW Association of Gifted and Talented Children.

When: 2 February 2012

Where: St Thomas' Church, 79 Nuwarra Rd, Moorebank

Time: 6:30 to 8:30pm

Cost: $16 NSWAGTC Members (using this Members only discount coupon), $20 Non-members (early bird $5 discount valid to 28 December 2011)

To register go to <http://www.nswagtc.org.au/check-our-events.html>

DR. GLENISON ALSOP

We were saddened to hear of the death of Dr Glenison Alsop on 21 January 2012. Glen worked tirelessly since 1985 in the field of children of high intellectual potential as a psychologist, counsellor, academic and researcher. She was involved in the establishment of the CHIP Foundation and the CHIP Unit at the University of Melbourne. She has published in refereed journals and presented at conferences in Australia and in the US. In 2011 she was honoured with Life Membership of the VAGTC. She will be greatly missed. We extend thoughts and sympathy to her family.

#GTCHAT CHANGES

For the last three years #gtchat on Twitter has been a high point of my week. Founded by Deborah Mersino, #gtchat gathered teachers, parents and gifted advocates from around the world to discuss topics relating to giftedness.

Deborah Mersino has accepted an offer to become the new Senior Director of Marketing and Communications for the International Society for Technology in Education \(ISTE\) in Eugene, Oregon.

This means she will be saying good-bye to Ingeniosus and #gtchat

However she is working with her Global #gtchat Sponsors to pass the baton and ensure that Global #gtchat will continue.

Thank you so much, Deborah, for founding and developing #gtchat into a powerful source of communication, support and encouragement. We wish you every success in your new role and hope to hear from you often!

For the full story read Deborah's Ingeniosus blog post at <http://www.ingeniosus.net/archives/new-beginnings-and-heaps-of-gratitude/comment-page-1#comment-4627>

Teachers' Workshop

Gifted Students with Learning Disability:

What you need to know to keep parents out of your Inbox

Presenter: Carol Barnes BA, BA (Hons), MA, LLB

Session Outline:

The duality and disparity of gifted students with learning disability (GLD) present teachers with unusual challenges, and these can be exacerbated by parents who turn up with inches of IQ assessments and disability reports, and bark, "Here – I want you to do this!" What are teachers to make of GLD students' asynchrony and erratic, inconsistent performance in the classroom context where evidence-based assessment is demanded? No prior knowledge assumed. No unexplained jargon. No PowerPoint (!). And plenty of easy-to-follow diagrams on paper handouts to help teachers explain this counter-intuitive conundrum to parents.

About the Presenter:

Carol Barnes is convener of the NSW gifted association's support group for parents and teachers of gifted children with learning disability (GLD). She is also Vice-President of the QAGTC Gold Coast Branch and convener of that Branch's parent support group. She is an invited lecturer on GLD at Griffith University, and has provided training on GLD for Education Queensland's gifted education mentors (GEMs). Carol is also a lawyer but, most importantly, the mother of two gifted university students, each with multiple learning disabilities.

G.A.T.E.WAYS Brainwaves Clubs

The Brainwaves Club is based on the philosophy that highly able and gifted children have particular needs for stimulation and challenge that match their high level of curiosity and desire to learn. In addition, children with specialized skills and talents in advance of their age peers need both affirmation of these abilities and opportunities for talent development

These children also need opportunities to mix with like-minded peers and to form rewarding friendships that further foster their interests, social skills and self-esteem. The need for a high level of mental challenge and stimulation is sometimes not fully appreciated with young children. They may not show advancement in all areas. G.A.T.E.WAYS clubs also seek to provide a setting that promotes positive social interactions, self-confidence and pleasure in learning. All curriculum areas- science, maths, language, technology, philosophy, creative arts and more are offered. Clubs are designed to be challenging, but most of all, fun.

The clubs meet every second Saturday afternoon from 1.00 to 4.00pm during term time. This amounts to 8 meetings a Semester and 16 meetings a year

The fees are $455.00 (includes GST) per Semester payable on application and confirmation of place.

Nomination: G.A.T.E.WAYS requests that parents arrange for an appropriate person to fill in the nomination section. This is to verify that the applicant is highly able.

FROM DEE WHITE

I hope you had a good holiday break and you are well.

I just wanted to let you know that my writing classes for kids are now available online:

Kids can select from one of my six week online courses at Writing Classes For Kids.

These courses cost $60, and include six sessions with notes and a writing activity which I provide feedback on. The writing activity can be based on your work in progress or a completely new idea you might have.

The classes are:

- * Spark Your Imagination - Story Ideas
- * Heroes & Villains - Create great story ideas for your characters
- * What Happens Next - plotting the beginning, middle and end of your story
- * Pets & Animals - Your pet can star in your story
- * Editing Your Story - editing and submitting your work

As the classes will be run online, kids will be able to do the work where and when it suits you.

I will also let students know about publishing opportunities and writing competitions for kids and teens through my blog, Writing Classes For Kids.

Through the Writing Classes For Kids website I also offer partial manuscript assessments so students can send a short piece of their writing to me and I can give them comprehensive, constructive feedback which they then adapt to the rest of their work.

Please let me know if you have any questions about any of this.

Kind regards,

Dee
