Wednesday 22 October 2014
6 - 9.30pm

WED
22
OCT

Southern Community Church of Christ, Cnr Chesterville Rd & Pine St, Cheltenham 3192.

Gifted Support Network is excited to once again bring Melbourne's gifted community together at the third Gifted Networking Expo 2014.

Our Expo will be formally opened by Guest of Honour, Mr David Southwick MP. Mr Southwick was the chair of the Victorian Government's Inquiry into the Education of Gifted and Talented Students which presented its findings earlier this year.

The Expo will be jam-packed with local organisations and individuals who provide important services for gifted children. Parents and teachers of gifted children will have a unique opportunity to meet and mingle with these valued resources in the gifted community.

Some of these include:

- VAGTC
- Born to Soar
- CHIP/Exceptional Children
- Gifted Resources
- GSN Tech Table
- Hawker Brownlow
- Kids Like Us
- Ma Belle Voix
- MENSA
- The Philosophy Club
- SEAL
- Thinking Outside the Box
- WiseOnes
- Home Education Network
- Bradfield Dumpleton Cartooning
- Prime SCI! (Formerly Monash Science Centre)
- G.A.T.E.WAYS

There will also be a number of short presentations from professionals in the field. Speakers include:

- Carolyn Giles, Director - Born to Soar
- Ann Jackson, Education Consultant - Kids Like Us
- Susan Wight, Co-ordinator - Home Education Network

Refreshments provided. Children welcome. Free entry.

“Music Workshop” with Sue Hindle

Sunday 14th September, 2.30 – 4.30pm
Highton Primary School (School Hall)

Suited to primary age (5 – 12 years).

On the day: comfy clothes, water bottle, a snack.

Cost: $20 per member; $25 per non-member

Sue Hindle is well known in the Geelong community, having been involved with the Acabellas over the past 8 years, as an artist, singer, songwriter and music facilitator. This workshop will allow your child to explore music using a combination of techniques - singing, movement, relaxation, music making activities and song writing.

Singing is a great way to build a child's confidence, while advancing their music skills. Music is a great tool for stress management, developing creativity and listening skills. All of these are important for CHIP who needs to learn to manage intense feelings and emotions.

To book please email chipgeelong@gmail.com by the 5th September 2014.

Please note:

Children will not be permitted to stay/play unsupervised outside on school grounds during the workshop.

Giftedness is asynchronous development in which advanced cognitive abilities and heightened intensity combine to create inner experiences and awareness that are qualitatively different from the norm. This asynchrony increases with higher intellectual capacity. The uniqueness of the gifted renders them particularly vulnerable and requires modifications in parenting, teaching and counselling in order for them to develop optimally. (The Columbus Group, 1991)

VAGTC Conference 2015

Wherever you are on your Gifted Education journey – starting out, somewhere down the track or very well travelled – the 2015 VAGTC conference has something to inspire, inform and interest you!

Our tiered conference structure emulates the differentiated classroom to ensure participants with different levels of readiness, knowledge and skill are recognised and catered for. The emphasis is on helpful ideas, practical strategies, exemplary models and valuable materials – all the tools necessary for planning and implementing differentiation that truly meets the needs of gifted and talented learners.

Stimulating keynote speakers with expertise in the field will share insights and touch on theory, while an excellent and diverse range of workshops will focus on practice. Afternoon sessions are designed to inform and support your work with gifted students in very practical ways, whether you are an educator in Early Childhood, Primary or Secondary classrooms, at Tertiary level or in a Leadership role. Parents are most welcome and specific workshops will be offered to you, targeting important aspects of raising and educating gifted learners.

Whether you seek to further your understandings about Talent Development and Giftedness, want to explore elements of Differentiation or need to develop your repertoire of classroom strategies to cater for highly able students, there will be a presentation to meet your needs. The conference will equip participants with knowledge, new skills and quality resources to help put theory into successful and satisfying practice whatever the learning environment.

Novice or Apprentice, Practitioner or Expert – register for this exciting event, bring your curiosity and share your experiences. Enjoy collecting more of the tools you need to continue your learning journey so you can inspire your colleagues and gifted students to do the same!

Time: 9.30am - 5.30am
Venue: CQ Function Centre

Dates: Thu 21 - 22 May 2015

G.A.T.E.WAYS

‘CATERING FOR THE MATHEMATICALLY GIFTED MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENT’

In tandem with the release their latest publication, G.A.T.E.WAYS is offering a professional development session for teachers. The session will run after school from 4.30 – 6pm and will be offered on Monday September 8th at the Student Centenary Centre, Firkbank Girls’ Grammar School, Outer Crescent, Brighton

The cost of the session is $60.00 and will include a copy of the book
The Peculiar Puzzles of Professor Fibbernacho (RRP $49.50)

Teachers can ring G.A.T.E.WAYS ON 9894 2116 or email denise@gateways.edu.au to register a place

There are students in our classrooms who have unusually strong reasoning ability in mathematics; they quickly master new concepts and skills that exceed those of their classmates as well as year-level expectations. Providing for mathematically talented students is complex and influenced by many factors. These factors fall into three main categories:

- The different levels of mathematical giftedness
- Teacher involvement - the mathematical background of the classroom teacher
- The availability of appropriate resources that challenge students and provide opportunities for them to learn substantial mathematics.

The first part of this workshop will address the general issues and research-based options.

The second part of the session will introduce an example of a suitable mathematically rich resource, The Peculiar Puzzles of Professor Fibbernacho, that can be used to extend students.

For those who cannot attend the PD, but who would like to purchase a copy of the book, an order form is available on the website:

<http://www.gateways.edu.au/publications/the-peculiar-puzzles-professor-fibbernacho>

YEAR 5 AND 6 LEADERSHIP PROGRAM – SEPTEMBER 25 AND 26

Online parent enrolments for this program are now open

<http://www.gateways.edu.au/programs/leadership>

The program will run on Thursday 25th and Friday 26th September at City Cite, Level 12, 474 Flinders Street, Melbourne. These dates are in the school holidays. It is open to highly able students with leadership potential. Students can attend on one or both days, and they do not need to have attended Series 1 and 2 earlier in the year.

The format of the days is as follows:

Day 1 – am seminar pm students choose one of 3 workshops pm Q and A panel discussion with expert panel

Day 2 – students rotate through 3 skills-based workshops

A detailed brochure is available on the G.A.T.E.WAYS website, as well as enrolment instructions.

The feedback from previous days has been very positive. Here are just a few comments about the panel session:

- It was very inspiring
- The people who came were extraordinary people
- Leading is hard but rewarding
- It was interesting the way they talked about responsibility and leadership from personal experiences
- I learnt that you should follow your heart. Never give up on a dream
- I learnt that anyone can make a difference if they really try
- I learnt that your career can be based on anything that you are passionate about
- I really enjoyed it and learnt heaps
