Gifted Resources News

I have nearly completed updating the Information Pack – I am just waiting for a few more sets of brochures and flyers to arrive. The Gifted Resources Information Pack is a collection of brochures, pamphlets, articles and business cards from psychologists, education consultants, parent support groups and extension programs and information about conferences and events relating to giftedness.

The current pack contains approx 80 items including A4 sheets, A5 items, tri-fold brochures, business cards and bookmarks.

Cost of the pack is A$30.00 which includes the cost of postage.

To order an Information Pack please email jo@giftedresources.org giving your name and postal address and I will put a pack with an invoice included in the mail for you. Packs will not be sent out on approval.

I am still looking forward to attending the VAGTC Inc EmpowerEd Conference on 23-24 April. A Parent Session will be held on 23 April in conjunction with the EmpowerEd Conference. Cost for attending the Parent Session is a very reasonable $20 for members and $25 for non-members. And there is a special Conference 2013 offer for non VAGTC members to join the VAGTC by 24 April and receive membership from date of application for one year at half price! Contact the VAGTC at infolorax@vagtc.asn.au for more information.

WHAT'S IN THE IN TRAY?

Seminar

by Mr Murray Evely

Helping gifted children and young adolescents make and keep friends

Thursday 14 March 2013

7.45pm - 9.30pm

THU
MAR

Psychologist Murray Evely will present an important seminar looking at the individual needs of children and young adolescents when it comes to assisting them to develop friendships. He will address the ways in which parents can encourage and teach their children essential friendship and social competency skills.

Friendship is an important part of any child's development. For many children and young adolescents, making and keeping friends seems to be quite effortless but for others it can be a challenge. Whether it be giftedness, shyness, difficulty relating to others, impulsive behaviour or a specific disability - repeated problems with friendship groups can lead children to feelings of loneliness, isolation and sadness.

Together we will explore some of the key strategies parents can use to help their child achieve greater success with peer acceptance and in making and keeping friendships.

About the presenter: Murray Evely has extensive experience as a teacher-trained psychologist providing practical, hands-on resources and advice to parents, principals, teachers and school communities. Murray works across schools of varying sizes, types and demographics, conducts a part-time practice and for many years, consulted with two private hospitals in Melbourne. He has been a Victorian Department of Education Psychology Stream Leader. He currently works one day a week for the Australian Psychological Society as a Professional Advisor as well as consulting to schools on a weekly basis. In 2011, Murray - along with fellow psychologist Zoe Ganim - launched an exciting new website for schools - www.psych4schools.com.au which has a membership subscription base of schools and school professionals from across Australia.

Cost: $5 for members, $10 for non-members. Receipt provided. (You may join Gifted Support Network at the Seminar and receive the discounted price.)

Southern Community Church of Christ, Corner Chesterville Road and Pine Street, Cheltenham (Mel ref 86 J1)

RSVP: Please phone Louise on 0414 578 806 or email admin@giftedsupport.org by Monday 11 March.

Gifted Families Support Group

PO Box 51 Miranda NSW 1490

<http://www.gfsg.org.au>

Gifted Families Support Group Incorporated is a not for profit group formed in 2012 by local Mums looking for more activities for their children. The group is designed to support families of gifted children. It is our goal to use our experience with our own children, coupled with invaluable advice from others on the gifted journey, to provide families with the support they need.

Now taking expressions of interest for a Ladies Retreat to be held from Friday 14th June to Sunday June 16th, 2013!

We will be heading up to the Blue Mountains for a time of relaxation, sharing and teaching. Gifted Families Support Group Inc. will be hosting and co-ordinating the weekend with the invitation extended to our members, friends and state contacts. Preliminary details as below:

- The approximate cost will be $450 per person, which will include accommodation and all meals from dinner on Friday night up until and including lunch on Sunday; Continental buffet breakfasts; buffet lunches; morning and afternoon tea; 2 course dinner on one night and Chinese Banquet on the other night.
- Programme will include 2 sessions presented by Denise Wood and a panel discussion (plus lots of mingling, talking time, trivia night, board games and the library to browse...)
- Twin share with ensuite in 5 star accommodation.

Please note that we have both a minimum and maximum number of bookings.

Can you please let me know if you are interested in attending the retreat (without obligation), so that we can progress with the arrangements. I would ask that you do this by Saturday 9th of February.

Following this date, the Committee will decide if we are able to commence with completing our booking of the venue. Your payment, should you then choose to book in, can be spread over the next couple of months (details will be outlined in the booking form).

Kind regards,

Melinda Gindy

THE HIDDEN DIFFABILITY: DISCOVERING ASPERGERS

By Lyndel Kennedy

Blasck Publishing RRP $39.95

Publication Date December 2012

Available from Amazon, Dymocks, Readings and author website

'Aspergers is not a mental illness requiring medication to make it 'go away'. It is not a disease. It is a difference in brain wiring and function, that gives great gifts in some areas yet makes it harder to learn skills others find easy to attain.' (p2)

The Hidden Diffability: Discovering Aspergers illuminates the journey families face when a loved one has Asperger Syndrome, from the turbulence of diagnosis to finding the right support, therapies and funding. Lyndel Kennedy has combined 15 in-depth family interviews with personal and professional experience and extensive research to provide a much-needed and current Australian resource.

First in a series of Australian Stories of Asperger Syndrome, this book enables parents, carers and individuals with Aspergers to share their strategies, successes and lessons learnt along the way. Easy to read and informative, it covers:

- Identifying the first signs
- Getting and sharing the diagnosis
- Current therapies and interventions
- Funding and support
- The positives of being an 'Aspie'
- An extensive glossary, full diagnostic criteria including the new DSM-5*
- Recommended reading and resources.

Lyndel Kennedy is a writer, researcher, editor and mother of three, including a teenager with Aspergers. She volunteers for Asperger Syndrome Support Network Victoria as vice president, parent support group facilitator and website curator. The Hidden Diffability: Discovering Aspergers is her first self-published book in a series of three.

'This book deals with the real questions families face . . . the strength of this Autism Spectrum collection is in the range of viewpoints, logical structure, excellent editing and cover, but also in having real experiences to share.'

--Hazel Edwards, Reading Ambassador, author www.hazeledwards.com

'From experience I know that the path to diagnosis and ongoing management can be . . . bewildering. Whilst community awareness of Asperger's syndrome is improving, there remains a great need for 'down to earth' accurate information relevant to the Australian context. I highly recommend this book as a unique and easy-to-read resource.'

Practical Tips on Parenting and Advocating For Your Gifted or GLD/2e* Child

* GLD stands for gifted with learning disability, also called twice exceptional (2e).

Carol Barnes

Australian National Coordinator of GLD Australia

Carol is Vice-President and parent group convener of the Queensland gifted association's Gold Coast Branch. She is a sessional lecturer on GLD at Griffith University, and has provided GLD training for Education Queensland's gifted education mentors and for a variety of schools in NSW and Queensland. Carol is also the mother of two gifted university students, each with multiple learning disabilities.

In this session, you will be offered some explanations for your child's difficulties other than; "He's certainly bright, but he's just not trying!" If you are keen to learn practical strategies which will enhance your relationship with your child and with their teachers – next week and next decade – then you have found the right place.

Dyslexia for Dads

Short Course

Dyslexia for Dads has been designed in recognition of the unique and vital role dads and other men play in creating better outcomes for children impacted by Specific Learning Difficulties/ Dyslexia (SLD). Running for three consecutive weeks, this SLD short course is aimed at those dads/carers who want to play a more active part in the management of their child's SLD but are unsure how to do so. The individual units for "Dyslexia for Dads" are as follows:

Unit 1: Dyslexia101 for Dads

- A focus on the unique role of dads in managing SLD;
- A broad-based examination of different types of SLD;
- How to gain a tailored recognition and understanding of your own child's SLD;
- How to develop appropriate SLD management strategies, tailored to the needs of your child.

Unit 2: Dads and the Emotional Rollercoaster

- An examination of the emotional impact of SLD on children, families and school communities;
- How to gain a balanced perspective of SLD affected children;
- Recognising the impact of stress, and anxiety in managing SLD;
- Appropriate strategies to build resilience in your child with SLD;
- Self-care/ family-care.

Unit 3: Effective Teamwork

- An examination of effective home/school partnerships;
- The rights and responsibilities of dads, families and school communities;
- The role of the "Student Support Group".
